CAPTAIN LAMB

Helps an Old Federal Soldier Who Helped Him Afte. War.

CAPTAIN SLOAN WAS PROVOST

Was Dropped From Army, But Now Wants to Get on Retired List.

BY WALTER EDWARD HARRIS. WASHINGTON, D. C., February 7,-Forty-odd years ago, when Virginia was Military District No. 1, and the entire South was under military rule as a result of unsuccessful efforts to establish a sister republic in North America, a Captain Sloan was sent down to New Kent county as pro-yost marshal. He was an officer of the army who had faced the Confed-erate soldiers in battle-line on many occasion, and had come to have a wholesome respect for the men who fought in gray. Captain Sloan was an ideal office

Captain Sloan was an ideal officer so far as the duties of the post of provest was concerned. He was kind and considerate of the old "Rebs" of the county, and many of them, who were about to be subjected to inconveniences and humiliations at the liands of civil authorities, owed their escape therefrom to the kindly offices of the provest marshal.

Among the former Confederates placed under obligations to the kindly officer was Captain John Lamb, who, when the Confederate army surrendered at Appomattor, had made a reputation as the commander of the fighting Surry Cayairy. More than once Captain Lamb was the recipient of kindness at the hands of Captain Sloan, and many times the Confederate veteral saw his old comrades-in-arms receive kind treatment from the "Yankee" provost.

Kind to Confederates.

When the military was withdrawn and the State was turned over to the civil authorities, Captain Sloan was ordered away, of course. His going caused regret among the New Kent and Charles City people, for his kindlesses had endeared him to all of them.

tesses had endeared him to all of them.

Captain Lamb never heard from Captain Sloan until a few days ago. The old captain of the Surry Cavalry is now a member of Congress, and Captain Sloan is a cittzen of New York. Soon after he left Virginia he was dropped from the army, being a volunteer officer. He had fine record, but was unable to retain his commission when the army was placed on a peace footing. Captain Sloan wants to get back into the army, and he wrote to Captain Lamb to help him. He wants to be placed on the retired list, and solicited the aid of Captain Lamb in the passage of a bill to that effect. A member of Congress from New York, a Republican, came to Captain Lamb this morning and told him that Captain Sloan had asked him to see the captain and get his help in having the Elli passed, and the member occuled by asking Captain Lamb to help him with the bill.

"My dear fellow," said Captain Lamb,

by asking Captain Lamb to help kind with the bill.

"My dear fellow," said Captain Lamb, "I have already been before the Committee on Military Affairs in behalf of the bill, and shall go again if it is necossary. I am ready to do anything in my power to show Sloan that we appreciated his kindness shown at a time when conditions in Virginia were worse than those which accompanied the war."

Captain Sloan could not have had a finint idea, when he was being "good' to Confederates over forty years ago now, that it would be in the power of one of them at this distance to Frender him a favor which will be felt to the grave.

Does Your Stomach Feel Happy When Menl-Time Comes!

When you sniffle in the air the appetizing aroma of something cooking, do you feel that you could sit down, open your mouth, pin back your ears and eat with a delicious gusto, everything set before you, and not feel any bad effects from it.

In other words, can your poor stomach take care of everything and anything you put into it? There are thou sands and thousands of people who do not know what it is to have a good astrong, healthy stomach, nor do they realize what it is to have a good appetite.

not know what it is to have a good, strong, healthy stomach, nor do they realize what it is to have a good appetite.

You can have an all-powerful stomach and a fetching appetite for every meal, and every day, if you give your stomach a rest, and let something else take hold of your food for you and digest it as it comes into the stomach, something that is harmless but that really does the work of digesting, quickly and thoroughly.

This "something" is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the most effective little tablets in the world for curing anything that may be wrong with your stomach. One ingredient of these precious little workers digests 2,000 grains! They are really an artificial stomach, because they act just like the stomach, they digest your food, just as though you didn't have a stomach at all. It supplies the stomach with the digestly gives which have become weak and scanty.

Then your indigestion, dyspensia, sour risings, brash, belchings, acidity, fermentation, loss of appetite, aversion to food, bloaty feeling, hearthurn and musea, will be no more. You can then eat anything you want, all you want, whenever you want, and your stomach, your appetite will be a thing, and your stomach, it is not any stomach with the digestive provides the horough and soothing to the whole work. Your appetite will be a thing, and your stomach as the work of the horough and soothing to the whole work well, or be a pleasure to have, your means will be a pleasure to have, your means will be a pleasure to have work well, or be a pleasure to have soon after a hearty wind and make you end of the your means and address to have your stomach a rest, so it can light fixed, then you need fear nothing. MONEY RAISED FOR VETERANS' REUNION

The Confederate Reunion fund The Confederate Reunion fund now being relied for the proper entertain-ment of "Marse Robert's ragged thousands," who will pour into Blohmond this spring on the occasion of the meeting of the Grand Camp, United Confederate Veterans, yesterday took a $166 bound upwards, which made the total in hand $9,993.75. Indeed, it the total in hand $9,993.75. Indeed, it is violating no confidence to whisper that the fund already has practically reached more than $10,000, for the canvassing committees have several promises which are as good as cash, and which will carry the total over the last-mentioned amount.

Yesterday's contributions were as follows:

Dr. Richard G. Crouch	$100	00
Arthur B. Clarke	10	00
A. Elchel	10	20

So far, a total sum of $30,000 is in sight for the veterans—that is, supposing the city gives $20,000—but at least $15,000 more will be needed, if the gray-coated visitors are to be accorded the reception which the reunion committees think they deserve. Lifeboats from the schooner could have had no possible chance of reaching the shore in the sea that was raging.

When the sun went down last night the vessel was then nearing total destruction. Waves were breaking clear over the vessel, and everything aboard, including the crew, was becoming encased in ice.

There was no abatement in the flerceness, of the tempest during the night.

Life-savers made herole efforts to save the crew, keeping a constant watch to take advantage of the slightest opportunity that might permit them to get to the vessel, but their every effort was baffled by the same seas that wrought destruction to the schooner and its crew. The very shoals on which the schooner and its crew were lost have worked the destruction of scores of other vessels and hundreds of hardy scamen.

BILL IS OFFERED

Makes It Unlawful for Anyone to Engage in Business of Lobbying.

$500 FINE AND IMPRISONMENT

If the Bill Had Existed in the Past Numerous Members of Congress Would Have Escaped Disgrace.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 7.—
The long-expected has come, and now at least some of the members of Congress are wondering that it had not come sooner. An anti-lobbyist bill has been introduced in the House by Representative Tyndail, of Missouri, and referred to the Committee on Judiciary. The bill is entitled "A bill to prevent the unlawful employment of Senators and Representatives as attorneys and to suppress lobbying in the National Congress." The first paragraph makes it unlawful "for any person to engage in the profession or occupation of 'lobbying,' the general object and nature of which is to promote or suppress legislation to the personal and financial gain of individuals, companies, or corporations." WASHINGTON, D. C., February 7 .-

panies, or corporations."

Further along the bill provides that it "shall be unlawful for any company, corporation or person to give or offer to give any money or other valuable thing, directly or indirectly, to any United States Senator, or to any member of the House of Represen-tatives of the United States in securing tatives of the United States in securingtheir (sic) ald or influence as attorney or otherwise, to be used on behalf of the defense of any suit or cause pending or about to be instituted in any United States court or any department of the United States Government, wherein the United States Government, where the United States Government of the United S

Right of Petition. But there is a provision in the bill which guarantees the right of petition, granted by the Constitution and Bill of Rights, but this is prohibited to "ine of Rights, but this is prohibited to "ins proper and lawful subject of public utility and necessity, and not for the direct financial gain of any individual, company or corporation."

A second provision allows citizens to appear before a committee of Con-gress and give testimony concerning a pending bill, notwithstanding their personal interest in the proposed legis-lation.

Violation of any of the provisions of the act is made punishable by a fine of not less than $500, or imprison-ment of not less than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. both, in the discretion of the court.

It is impossible to estimate the chances of the passage of such a law as the one proposed. Had it been in existence and been regarded, Senator Furton would not now be "doing time," Senator Mitchell would not be sleeping in a dishonorable grave, and several Senators and members of Congress would not be universally looked upon as representing certain "special interests."

But the enactment and enforcemen of such a law would greatly deplete the population of Washington. Lob-byists of one class and another form a by ists of one class and another form a great portion of the transient population of the National Capital during a session of Congress. Capitol corridors during the hours Congress is in session are thronged with people. It might be an exaggeration to say one-half the people composing the crowds are personally interested in pending legislation, but hardly.

There is no great iffelihood of the passage of such a bill at the present session, but it is more than probable that such a bill will be enacted into law at an early session of Congress, unless public sentiment should suffer a revulsion and public conscience should go to sleep again.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been curing the most stubborn cases of rheu matism for nearly a generation, and thousands of grateful patients have given thousands of grateful patients have given testimony that cannot be ignored. Mr. Robert Odbert, a machinist, living at 201 Cameron Street, Detroit, Mich., had a very distressing experience with rheumatism for about two years. He makes the following statement: "About the year 1857 I felt the effects of rheumatism, which gradually grew worse until I was compelled to give up work for a time. The years of '97 and '98 I was confined to my bed most of the time. I was under doctors' trentment, but found no relief. My legs were swoltime. I was under doctors' treatment, but found no relief. My legs were swollen from the hips downward, and red blotches appeared all over them. Frequently they paned me so that I had to bind them tightly with strips of linen. This sometimes relieved the pain, but at other times failed to do so. At times I had to crawl to my work, using two crutches. During these spells I suffered greatly from pain around my heart, which I attributed to the rheumatism. "At last my mother wrote me and

"At last my mother wrote me and asked me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, asked me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I did, and in a short time I found myself getting better, and have had no trouble since. I may here add that I consider myself perfectly cured. I have not had the least sign of the disease since, and feel better now than I ever did. For these reasons I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any one affected the same as I was."

LMANY INTERESTING POINTS RAISED IN JAMES WILL SUIT

Summary of Chief Allegations Made By Relatives Who Are Seeking to Have Court Take Hand.

The papers in the chancery suit of W. E. Thomson and Virginia A Thomson vs. the Norfolk Bank for Savings and Trusts and about thirty other defendants contain a number of interesting features. As already stated, the purpose of this cause, entered last week in the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond, is to break the will of Edward Wilson James, of Norfolk, who left an estate of about $300,000. The specific allegations in the bill and the facts adduced in support of them show the grounds upon which the plaintiffs rely to in lidate certain bequests and to cause revocation of the act of the Norfolk court in permitting the Bank for Savings and Trusts to qualify as executor bf the estate. Here are some of the principal allegations:

The plaintiffs allege that E. W. James, having failed to appoint an executor, the next of kin of E. W. James were entitled to administer the estate of E. W. James were entitled to administer the estate of E. W. James were entitled to administer the estate of E. W. It is regarded as entriely improbable, however, that the case will be taken higher, since such action would be yery expensive, and could only suffice to further delay the termination of the case. Furthermore, the United States Supreme Court would only pass upon the Federal question that might be raised, and would not touch the merits of the complicated procedure leading up to the court phases of the case.
